Volume 31 Issue 1

January 2006

JANUARY MEETING WAS ONE NOT TO MISS. DID YOU?

What a spectacular first meeting of the year hosted by David Carlson and Vance Blew at their home in Alpharetta. A newly remodeled split level, a well planned and executed conversion had all the latest amenities including a Viking gas oven, dual porcelain sinks and double brushed stainless refrigerators. The food was outstanding on a beautiful spring-like day.

Vance Blew, left, and David Carlson hosted the January meeting. Great food and a neat house and garage.

Dining room meeting.

Guadalupe rewards husband Tim with kiss.

From traditional split level to modern home.

Chuck Lampman counts the money.

Different by Design

President's Message:

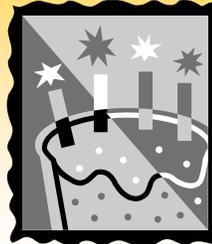

I didn't get a chance to eat a snack before our 2 p.m. meeting at David Carlson and Vance Blew's home. That's usually my bridge between an early breakfast and a late lunch. But I'm glad I didn't. My comment to them is, stop what you're doing and open a restaurant! They remodeled a split-level ranch into a modern, latest technology home capped off with a spectacular and spacious garage with full-size lift—a dream for car nuts like us. Their kitchen was out of Southern Living, and the cuisine was on par with any of Atlanta's finest upscale restaurants. I want to thank David and Vance for a stupendous effort with a great atmosphere, warm hospitality, and a tremendous first meeting of the new year.
