SPRING-LIKE DAY GREET'S 40 PLUS MEMBERS AT THE MARTIN'S

More than 40 members made the trek to Conyers to the home of Fred & Paula Martin. The Martins served up sloppy joes and a tempting array of desserts. Fortunately the sun came through for our crowd because it may have been a record number of Studebakers lined up in Fred's yard. Oh, of course Rick Kamen brought his Willys, another orphan car for everyone to enjoy.

Everyone has fun.

Meeting at the Martin's

The sun brought out the crowd and about 18 Studebakers basking in the sun.

Mike Byrd and Pete McCaffrey enjoy the 64 degree March 5 meeting at Fred Martin's.

Dan Miller sports his new high-tech sunglasses; Chuck wants a pair too.

SOUTH BEND – Classic sandwiches and salads are being served up right next to Champions, Larks and other classic vehicles.

A cafe recently opened in the lobby of Studebaker National Museum, 201 S. Chapin St. It's called the 1st Source Cafe, after its corporate sponsor. The food preparation and service are provided by The Culinary Connection in Mishawaka. The breakfast menu includes bagels, muffins, cereal and fruit bars, as well as coffee, tea and juices. The lunch menu offers two types of sandwiches and two salads. Salads and sandwiches are priced $3 to $4. Museum admission is not required to visit the cafe. Museum staff hope the new cafe becomes a regular draw for people grabbing coffee on their way to work and a lunch spot for downtown workers, said Patti Doyle, the museum's special projects coordinator. The cafe has seats for 20 customers. A nearby patio will provide additional seating during warm weather. The partners of The Culinary Connection sought the museum space in order to expand their customer base to South Bend. The Culinary Connection opened in December at 713 N. Main St., Mishawaka. The Mishawaka location offers "grab-and-go" bistro-style dinners, desserts and specialty coffees. The business is operated by partners Joseph Catanzariti, Brett Boomhower and Audra Nixon.

President's Message:

The upcoming State meet is something we are all looking forward to. After hosting last year's meet we all realize how much work goes into these events. We need someone to chair the 2007 North Georgia Chapter event. Chuck Lampman did a splendid job (and kept great records also), but it's someone else's turn. So this is an appeal to our membership for someone to take the helm of this important show. We are already behind, so please contact me or Chuck and let us know you want the job. There is already a crew of volunteers to help out including Chuck. So step forward and be the man (or woman) we need to help our club shine in 2007.

ATTENDEES
February, 2006

There is always someone behind the scenes at the meetings. In this case it was Kris Straton, the Martin's eldest, who helped with the buffet and who also made the cheese cake.

Looking for a chairman for the 2007 State Meet. Also need volunteers for the team. Great records on last years meet will make this one much easier. So contact Don Smith or Chuck Lampman to volunteer.
