CHRISTMAS IN BETHLEHEM WAS ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL MEETING

Our annual Christmas dinner in Bethlehem was another big hit with a majority of our members in attendance and even a few brought guests. The usual suspects where there, turkey and dressing, ham, plus all the fixings and everyone had all they wanted. Let's thank the Careys and the Phillips for another tough job well done to the enjoyment of all of us. See you next December in Bethlehem, Georgia.

Hey. Soups on!

Party, party, party.

Can we shorten the meeting this Christmas? I have some shopping to do.

Tax season is over, someone else is doing the cooking, food looks good. It don't get any better than this.

"I told you to turn off the oven." "No, I told you to turn off the oven."

NEXT MEETING: PROVINO'S ITALIAN RESTAURANT 440 ERNEST W BARRETT PKWY NW KENNESAW, GA 30144

Near Town Center mall, north of Marietta; accessible from either I-75 or I-575. (I recommend using I-575 since entrance to the parking area is all right turns.) If you use I-75 from the South, be sure to get in the correct lane on the off-ramp; it is marked for entrance to Town Center. I have marked the map to show parking lot entrances- we will have reserved parking near Provino's door. We will have a private room, and will order from the menu with separate checks.

Look for some interesting faces at the next meeting.

"Your car could be here too. Just do a frame off, strip the paint, replace the engine and drive train, install Turner brakes, all new metal, new transmission and I will be glad to tow you to the next meeting cause you can't afford the gas."

Who is this distinguished lady in blue? Is she a patron of the arts? Is she a dowager in disguise? I think I have it! She's our great lady of Jefferson, Dot Hunt.

Meeting Schedule

January 7: Provino's Italian Restaurant, Kennesaw
Hosted by Chuck & Cindy Lampman

Nominee for office:

President: Barbara Miller

Elected to office:

Vice President: Chuck Lampman

Secretary: Don Smith

Sam and Kathy Ensley enjoyed our Christmas fare. Nice seeing you both

"Are you sure you paid?"

A beautiful Sunday in early December and all the Studebakers line up in Bethlehem for the Christmas meeting.

"You are very attractive. Did you come with someone? I have a Studebaker Champ outside."

"Every time I go to a meeting they have great food."

Our website has the location of all the upcoming meeting schedule:
www.studebakerclubs.com/northgeorgia.

Can I volunteer for something?
How about food taster?

Yes I am camera shy, but go ahead and take my picture if you have to. Also would you send me a copy?

President's Message:

Hobo Bodkin is having some back problems and has asked to have his position as President elect offered to another member. So up for nomination is Barbara Miller. At the January meeting the election process will take its course and Barbara will be the President of the club for 2007. You all know Barbara, of course, she and husband Dan are the mainstays of the club attending virtually every meeting, volunteering for every task that needs to be done and always doing everything with great effort. I am personally thrilled that we will have Barbara for next year. She has always been there for the club and she was there for me and any other officer who ever held a post.

Who is this well-dressed sophisticated lady? Well it's Bridget Phillips all grown up. Well just looks grown up.

After a few days of cold and wet weather, we had a beautiful Sunday in Bethlehem for the meeting. A bevy of beautiful Studebakers lined up in front of the church and members huddled around the cars to compare notes and admire other members' work.

The lineup at the church.

Everybody gets a prize, where everybody knows your name.

Crazy Ray Smith subs for Bob Hughes when Bob cannot make the meeting and do the photography. If you haven't spent some time talking with Crazy Ray, you have missed out on a rare opportunity to find out why he is called Crazy.

Dues time again!
North Georgia chapter dues ($15/year) are payable on a calendar year basis. 2007 dues will be due January 1, 2007, and may be paid to the Treasurer at the November or later meetings. Checks should be made to "North Georgia SDC"
