Tech Topic

Engine Won't Start. Getting Spark?

Tip to check if there is going to be a spark or not:

- 1- Remove a spark plug wire.*
- 2 - Insert a paper clip into the plug socket - "A"*
- 3 - Hold wire on the insulation.*
- 4 -Have someone crank the engine over.*
- 5 - Hold the wire so that the paper clip is near a metal surface. "B" There must be a small gap between. If there is a good spark, then look elsewhere for the problem as to why the engine will not start.*

Did you know that approximately 90% of all electrical problems are due to a bad ground? A good tip for this problem is to add more ground straps. The best way to fasten these is to use an internal/external lock washer. Internal or external washers are easy to find, but an internal/external on the same washer is a lot harder to find.

The above technical topic was taken from a column called Odds 'N' Ends written especially for SDC newsletter editors by Pete Yuen, retired newsletter editor.

STUDEBAKER NATIONAL MUSEUM UPDATE

The Museum's incredibly popular exhibition Ten Cars that Changed the World closed on February 3. This exhibition sparked some fantastic conversations about how a car becomes more than a form of transportation and changes the world. Many thanks to the Society of Automotive Historians for their collaboration with this exhibition.

The next exhibition opening at the Museum explores one of the most important trends in automotive styling. Streamlined: Style in Motion will highlight one of the most iconic and beautiful automobile design languages, that of streamlining. Featuring a range of automobiles, many with Studebaker ties, this exhibit will explore how these designs came to be and the difference between European and American takes on this distinctive style.

Brain teaser

Many of us know a bit about the history of the Jeep. It was manufactured by a number of different companies throughout its long history. But here's a question for you:

Was the manufacture of Jeeps limited to the United States, or did other countries get involved, too? If you think the latter, then about how many other countries do you think might have taken part in the manufacture of Jeeps?

Answer and discussion coming next month.

SOME THOUGHTS ON RESTORING A STUDEBAKER

Written by Chuck Lampman, this 99-page book is based on articles written by Chuck Lampman, North Georgia Chapter SDC member, that appeared in Turning Wheels in the early 1990's and won the SDC Churchill Award for Best Article, Non-paid. Some material edited out of Turning Wheels is included in the book as well as updates and several new items written after the Turning Wheels series was published. "Some Thoughts" is aimed at the first-time restorer but will be of value to the more experienced. It is not intended to be a "how to restore" book but gives a look at the decision-making processes, tools, spaces, and basic skills needed to do a restoration. It also provides a framework to help structure a project and contains several chapters of Studebaker-specific advice.

Cost for the book shipped to continental US addresses is $22.50 plus $4.00 for handling and postage. Payment can be made through PayPal sent to chuck@lampman.com or by mailing a check or money order to Chuck Lampman, 4141 Lynette Court, Kennesaw GA 30144-2293.

Four 6" steel wheels to fit Studebaker- $200

Running modern radial tires on 5-1/2" Studebaker wheels is DANGEROUS. Anything wider than a 195/75R15 (a VW Beetle tire) stresses the wheels more than they ever were designed for, causing them to flex, and eventually fail. Migration of full wheel covers around the wheel, or losing wheel covers while driving can be a symptom of wheel flex.

I bought these wheels from Dan Miller when he was selling them for $75 each about 20 years ago to put on my Avanti, but I went another route on that car. These have been gathering dust in my garage since then, and I would like them to go to a good home.

Call Chuck Lampman at (770) 926-7142 or (404) 483-5380, or email to chuck@lampman.com.

Car Search: In 2002 I sold a red 1960 Lark convertible with a white top, 259 V8, Flightomatic, and an internal crank up antenna to someone in the Stone Mountain area.
