Commander's Comments

North Georgia Chapter Members:

We had about two dozen members at our February meeting at the home of David and Sharon Stone located just south of Rome, in Lindale. Those who attended got a chance to drive through some beautiful scenery on a beautiful day. It was not too cool and there was little or no wind. So much for the weather....what about lunch? Lunch was unique and very enjoyable. I never thought about how many different toppings you could put on baked potatoes. Sure, there was butter, sour cream, bacon and even chili; but how about sauerkraut and sausage or a wonderful Cajun dish with shrimp. If none of the above was to your liking that was no problem, because I've listed less than half of the options! Needless to say, we had a good time.

Rochelle and I look forward to hosting next month's meeting at our home. This will be a covered dish lunch, so bring whatever you'd like. Also, please bring chairs if you have them.

Until then, enjoy your Studebakers and stay safe.

Alan Ziglin

Out by the Swimming Pool in January

I am writing this on Friday, January 28, 2011 at 4 PM. I'm wearing shorts, a T-shirt and flip-flops. It is 74 degrees and a beautiful sunny day. How can that be? I'm in Phoenix, Arizona. After the week we spent at home with Atlanta being shut down by the snow and ice, coming to visit friends in Phoenix seemed like the thing to do. When we get home tomorrow, we will have been gone a total of eleven days.

On Saturday, January 22, there were four major collector car auctions being held in Phoenix. I chose to go to Barrett-Jackson. To say the least, it was an extravaganza. GM and Ford both had large booths set up to show off their new cars as if it was the annual auto show. The vendor booths had much car related content along with non-auto related content such as two major booths of bedroom mattresses and box springs! As far as the prices of the cars auctioned, they were....well; let's just say they were "interesting".

I'm glad I went, but don't care to hurry back.

Since Rochelle has not been to this part of the country, we've been traveling into southern Colorado, and New Mexico. Yes, we did get into some COLD temperatures. In Albuquerque we took what they call a tram. It's suspended on a cable, like at Stone Mountain, but the Albuquerque version is three miles long and the ride up takes 15 minutes. One of the cable sections between supports is a mile and a half long! Yes, there was a "little" swaying. You make your reservation for what they refer to as a "flight" and I see why. At the top we saw beautiful sights while we shivered in a -5 degree wind chill (15 degree temperature and 30 mile an hour winds). Even though our camera battery was fully charged, after each picture I took, I had to warm the battery since the cold drained its power until it was warmed up.....did I say we took this trip to get away from the winter weather in Atlanta??

Earlier in this trip we had gone to “Four Corners”. This is the only place in the nation where four states meet (Utah, Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona). Rochelle took a picture of me with each hand and foot in a different state. If you look on the internet, you will see that many people have their picture taken this way. Just to be different, I also sat so that my rear-end was in all four states (see picture #1).

In Albuquerque, I left Rochelle at a casino while I went to an antique car museum. The museum was very interesting, but only had one Studebaker...a pretty yellow Lark Convertible (see picture #2).

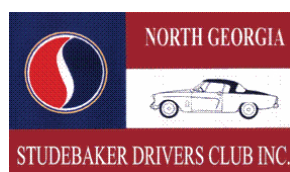

As for Rochelle’s time in the casino, she lost! But not like most people do. She lost her voice...really. She was fine when she went into the casino and could hardly talk when she left two hours later. It was really strange. I never understood just how literally prayers could be answered. I’ll certainly be more careful in the future.

While in Albuquerque, we drove down a street called “Rio Grande Boulevard”. At that point I realized that the Rio Grande River flows through Albuquerque, so I just had to go to it and wet my fingers in it. To explain, many years ago, I got to the Pacific Ocean for the first time. I left Rochelle back on the shore with the camera and told her to take a picture of me wetting my fingers in it for the first time. This was back in the era of cameras using film, and so it was not until I got back home and had the film developed that I realized that Rochelle’s finger was in front of the camera lens. So this time after getting my picture taken in front of the Rio Grande River sign, we went down to the water’s edge. Not surprisingly, it was muddy. I gave Rochelle the camera and since I already know what her fingers look like, I asked her to take a picture of me touching the water. All went well and the picture was taken. Then I had to get away from the water. My foot closest to the water was stuck in the mud and as I tried to free it, I slipped and caught myself before falling in the water or mud. I left with muddy shoes and jeans, but was very happy to not be leaving soaked or completely covered in mud.

We put over 1700 miles on the rental car in just the last week and have seen some very beautiful scenery, but it will still be good to get home tomorrow.

Until next month...remember to...Throw out the clutch!

North Georgia Chapter, Studebaker Drivers Club

Meeting Minutes

February 6, 2011

- President Alan Ziglin opened the meeting. Thank you to David and Sharon Stone for hosting us today at their home.
- Dan Miller made a motion to approve the January meeting minutes as published in the February Hillholder. Bill Delli seconded the motion, and all members present voted to approve.
- We recognized visitors and guests, and announced birthdays, anniversaries, and those members we need to keep in our thoughts and prayers.
- Ben Alspach passed around a magazine article about the 1948 Dodge Derham Coupe, a custom-bodied car with its roofline inspired by our own Studebaker Starlight. Charlie Attaway reminded members of the Chevy Swap Meet taking place February 12 in Marietta. Janet Alspach again had copies of her church's cookbook for $12.
- Edward Burris told us the SDC board is considering creation of a Phil Brown award, in honor of this long-time SDC member who died in a car accident last year. Ed has some reservations on this proposal, feeling that recognition of this type should first go to people who helped get the SDC established in its formative years.
- Wayne Lee reports that John Hollier is now the SDC Regional Manager for Georgia. Tennessee Regional Manager Lanny McNaab has been working with a group in Chattanooga to establish a new chapter there. The River Bend Chapter is starting out with about twelve members, and has Roger Bass as its first president. The new chapter would like to host a Zone Meet in 2012 to introduce themselves to the SDC community.
- Chris Collins mentioned that we have been invited to join the Peach State Cadillac-LaSalle Club in their tour of Truett Cathy's car collection on May 14th. More information will be in The Hillholder.
- Charlotte Delli presented the Treasurer's report; a copy will be in the newsletter. Charlotte needs to put together a list of who needs name badges, so she can place an order. The first badge is free for members, with replacement badges costing $10. Contact Charlotte if you need one.
- Barbara Miller will check with Lenny Major to see how many polo-style club shirts we have on hand before we order more. For Zone Meet t-shirts, all we have left are medium and extra-large sizes, priced at $5 each.
- As the chapter is in a strong financial position, we would like to re-start the committee established in 2008 to identify charities we wish to support, while continuing our ongoing support for the ALS Association of Georgia. As of mid-2008, the committee was headed by Charlotte, with Maureen Elliott, John Hollier, and Chuck Lampman also volunteering to serve. If you can resume serving on the committee, or would like to, please contact Charlotte so we can get rolling again with this endeavor.
- We discussed how long the chapter should retain its financial records. Since the chapter operates on a cash basis, with few if any transactions that carry over from one year to another, seven years should be more than adequate. Motion to approve this seven-year policy was made, seconded, and approved by the members present.

- Bill Delli said about 30 members have yet to renew for 2011. We will start following up with those folks, as the March 1st deadline to maintain an active membership is fast approaching.
- Charleen Carey recently learned of a 1947 Champion for sale. See the Marketplace section of the newsletter for the details.
- Alan won the 50/50 drawing, splitting the $52 pot with the chapter. We all promised to not spill the beans and let Rochelle know that he won. Barbara and Bill won door prizes contributed by our hosts the Stones.
- The March meeting will be a pot-luck at Alan and Rochelle's home in Dunwoody. Please bring chairs along with your covered dish item to share. Directions will be in The Hillholder, no need to RSVP.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned. See you again on March 6th.

We are both doing well; the last couple of meets were just a bit far from Fayetteville for us to manage. We are planning to attend the Zone Meet in Tifton, and hope to see you there if not before.

Love,

The March 2011 issue of Car and Driver has a profile on page 21 of SDC member Ken Michael, who operates a Studebaker restoration shop in Arizona.

In July, the U. S. Postal Service will issue Pioneers of Industrial Design. This series of twelve stamps honors each 20th Century designer with a photo of a representative household product. The Raymond Loewy stamp highlights his streamlined pencil sharpener from the 1930's, with the following text:

"Raymond Loewy arguably did more to define the look of modern America than perhaps any other industrial designer. Loewy created the distinctive look of Air Force One and worked with NASA on the interiors of America's first space station, Skylab. In 1971, he created the logo for the newly formed U.S. Postal Service, and his designs have appeared on several postage stamps."

Chris

Chris,

I will be going to York and have booked the Motel 6, I-83 and Arsenal Road. The rate is $39.99, and the SDC apparently has a deal going with Motel 6 for a discount. I booked it on-line and don't know if I got a special rate. When I check in I will ask. I do not know the rate at the host hotel, but anyone going should check it out and make their own decision.

When I lived in NJ I went every year, but it was a day trip for me.

Rich Knoblock

2-15-2011

Dear Members of the North Georgia Chapter,

Thank you for your donation to the hospice at St. Elizabeth's in memory of my father James Thompson.

Your thoughtfulness brought great comfort to me during a very difficult time.

Sincerely,

Charlotte Delli

Richard Waldrop of the Triumph Club would like to extend an invite to all interested, Studebaker, Packard or whatever vehicle you feel like driving. Any questions, please contact him at his Car Nut e-mail address.

Rick Kamen

For your information, our Moonshiners' Run will be Saturday, March 12. Some of us are staying over night. The run will begin in Braselton, Ga. and end in the mountains close to Cedar Mountain, NC.

This is the old route the moonshiners used delivering their brew to North Atlanta. Our run will be going North instead of South with two or three points of interest along the way that everyone will enjoy. An example of one is watching your car roll up a hill while in neutral.

We plan to arrive in Braselton at 8:15 a.m. and begin our drive by 8:45 a.m. We will meet at an old shopping center at the traffic light as you come into Braselton. The exit off of I-85 N. is #129 (Hwy. 53).

We do hope the Willys Club, the Packard Club and the Studebaker Club can join us on this event. You will not be disappointed.

Of course, we need to act fast because the date is coming up quickly. Please let me know as soon as you can if you will be joining us - especially how many will stay over night. We need to make reservations for those people staying. I look forward to hearing from you soon

We hope to see everyone there!

Putting it into Context

by Jim Masone

This story about how I got interested in Studebakers is really less about me and more about the person who put the little bit that I knew about the marque into context for me.

I always had a fascination with all things mechanical but with cars in particular. I got my first car when I was about eight years old. It was a clapped-out 1958 Hillman Minx convertible that my father bought from his commanding officer in the Naval reserves for my mother. He thought it would be the perfect car for her to "sport around" the island where we spent our summers. My mother took one look at the rusty, faded car with holes in the floorboards big enough for her youngest (me) to drop through and declared that there was no way it would pass the rigorous state inspection. Even if it did, she would not be seen in it until at least the holes in the floors and fenders were fixed. She was correct on both counts: It did not pass inspection and the holes never got fixed. I started tinkering with it and it became mine by default. Actually, the default was that we could not possibly have sold it, yet it ran too well to scrap. Turns out the car had spent time on an aircraft carrier. It was the commanding officer's car that he drove around the deck of the ship. My mother suspected that it had been dipped into the salty ocean whenever it needed to be washed.

My interest in cars and my limited knowledge of Studebakers started earlier. My first awareness was of a metallic gold Gran Turismo Hawk that my kindergarten teacher, Miss Markle, drove and parked in front of the little elementary school in our neighborhood. It had a black interior with leopard seat covers. Looking back, Miss Markle was quite the hottie, being the daughter from a wealthy family in the town where we spent our winters. I'm not sure if my heart was broken more when she got married and pregnant (not necessarily in that order) or when she traded the GT Hawk on a brand new white over red 1966 Buick GS convertible.

As my tender six-year-old heart mended from this double trauma, our family purchased a summer place on the island and began our 110 mile commute on weekends. We spent many hours together on the road in our “boring” Pontiac Bonneville Safari with the 389 tri-pack driving to and from our beach house. Many times we found ourselves stuck in traffic as we headed away from New York City on Friday afternoons. It was during one of these trips that I became aware of a gorgeous finned coupe next to us. Apparently I made quite a fuss about what was, in hindsight, a finned Hawk. I think it was tan with a gold insert in the fin. It was being driven by a pretty young lady but, alas, this one was pulling rapaciously on a cigarette. I forgot about Miss Markle and her GT Hawk and fell in love with the lovely befinned Loewy coupe – maybe not so much with the tartlet behind the wheel as my parents stressed on my impressionable young mind how evil and nasty cigarette smoking was. When I queried my parents about the car they told me what make it was but I could not pronounce the name “Studebaker” so I just called it “The Fin Car.” It became quite a joke in the family because every time we saw a Studebaker Hawk, someone called out “There’s a fin car!” Obviously we were desperate for entertainment when we traveled, this being before the days of stereos, DVDs and other forms of in-car distract...I mean, entertainment.

During my formative years I was also aware of the Avanti. My first – and favorite – model car was an Avanti that I painted a bilious blue gray. Okay, so I painted it with a brush and it was pretty horrid. Still that was no reason for my older brother to blow it up with an M-80. Another trauma for a tender heart.

THE MARKETPLACE

Editor's Note: Ads will run in three issues of The Hillholder, with the final date shown at the end of each listing. To renew your ad beyond the initial run, please contact me and I will extend it for another three months. To submit or change your ad, see the contact information on the last page. Classified ad submissions are shared between The Hillholder and the SDC North Georgia Chapter website. The accuracy of listings is the responsibility of the advertising party, who should contact the editor if corrections are needed.

Photos: We can include a photo with your ad. If you have one item (vehicle for sale, part for sale, etc.) you may include one photo. If you have three or more items listed, the limit is three pictures total. This is to keep the classifieds section of the newsletter at a reasonable length. If you have additional photos, you can mention in your ad text that you will make them available to interested parties. You can also include the web address of the online photo sharing site (such as Photobucket) to which you have loaded more pictures.

FOR SALE:

CARS AND TRUCKS

1935 Dictator Deluxe four door sedan. Includes the different upholstery, the special built Emerson radio (working) and the footrest at the bottom of the front seat for rear seat passenger's use. This car is original, not restored. Original paint, except perhaps the front fenders which may have had a repaint a long time ago. The fabric top has been replaced. Mechanically I have rebuilt the carb, new brake master with new brake shoes, exhaust repaired as necessary. The car has only the mechanical parts repaired or replaced to make the car a safe driver. It has its original engine/trans. Please come and see this car if you can. $19,500.

1935 Dictator converted to a sedan delivery (panel truck). Cool street rod. Chrysler 318, "warmed up" cam and pistons. All engine work and assembly done by Tommy Goza. Rebuilt 904 automatic trans. Custom pearl green/gold paint with dark green pinstripe and accent stripes. Windows painted on the back sides so it can be used commercially. Leather interior, engine-turned dash board with Dolphin gauges. Rear hatch is from a PT Cruiser. This is a very interesting Studebaker; you'll probably never see another one. There are so many features, please call. I will email you additional pictures and discuss it with you. Vehicle is appraised at $70,000, but not in this market. First time offered for $54,900 or reasonable offer.

1937 Coupe Express, mild street rod. SBC, 700R4 rebuilt trans. My daily driver and shop truck, some minor rust, green velvet interior, plywood dash, etc. Again, come and take a look at this truck. I need to sell it due to health reasons. I have additional pictures that I can email to you. I believe any Coupe Express is worth reasonable money, regardless of the condition. This one runs and drives great with PS, 4 wheel disc PB and other performance items.

For these vehicles, please contact Steve Detch sadetch@comcast.net (678) 481-4492. (3/2011)

STUDEBAKER MEDIA

This is a 99 page book based on the articles of the same name that appeared in Turning Wheels in the early 1990s and which won the SDC's Churchill Award for Best Article, Non-Paid. The book contains all the material from the original series, which ran for a year and a half in The Hillholder, and not only replaces some material edited out for the TW series, but has updates and several new items that were written after the TW series was published.

"Some Thoughts" is aimed at the first-time restorer, but will be of value to the more experienced; it doesn't try to be a "how to restore a car book", but gives you a look at the decision-making processes, tools, spaces and basic skills you'll need to do a restoration, and will provide a framework to help you structure your project.

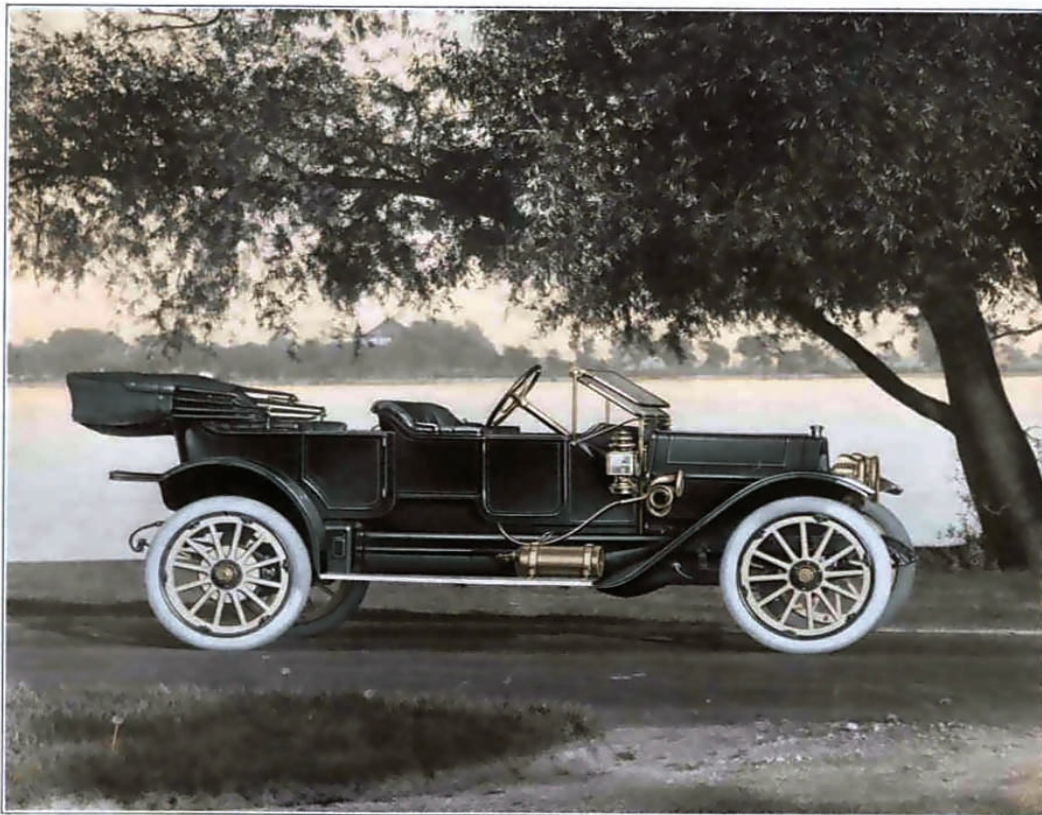

There are several chapters of Studebaker-specific advice. In the chapter devoted to engine rebuilding, I've tried to describe a step-by-step process that anybody can follow, and I've tried to include tips I've picked up in building 60+ engines. I've received many compliments on the engine chapter, and I'm glad to finally be able to get it in print.

Some Thoughts on Restoring a Studebaker is available for $22.50 USD, plus $4 for handling and postage, for a total of $26.50 to US addresses. Canadian orders add $6.50 USD for postage, total $29.00 USD. To order a second book in the same order, add an additional $3 ($4 USD for Canadian orders). For Australia and Europe, shipping is $12, total $34.50 USD paid by PayPal only.

The easiest way to purchase (and the only way if you are in Australia or Europe) is to PayPal the appropriate amount to me at chuck@lampman.com, and mention Some Thoughts in the remarks section. Otherwise, if you live in the US or Canada, send your name, mailing address and a check or USPS money order for $26.50 ($29.00 USD bank draft for Canadian buyers) to:

Chuck Lampman
4141 Lynette Ct.
Kennesaw, GA. 30144-2293

If mailing payment, please email me to notify me that the check is coming so I can set one aside for you, or get some more printed. (I try not to keep too big an inventory because they are expensive to stock.) (3/2011)
